RESTON COMMUNITY CENTER “DIVA CENTRAL” PROM DRESS DRIVE

RESTON, VA — Reston Community Center is sponsoring its annual Diva Central Prom Dress Drive through Saturday, March 28 to benefit local teens who cannot afford to buy prom attire. RCC is accepting donations of new or gently worn formal attire, handbags, shoes, jewelry, shawls and other accessories in good condition. Donations are tax deductible and can be dropped off at the Reston Community Center Hunters Woods, Monday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Dresses of all sizes, styles and colors are welcome. Please dry clean before donating. If dry cleaning is not possible, please inform us at the time of drop-off.

“We would like to see every girl have the opportunity to attend their prom night in style and have fun regardless of their financial or family circumstances,” Kish Jordan, Teen Program Director said. “In these challenging economic times, we want to ensure that as many girls as possible have a dress to wear for this memorable occasion.”

“RCC is committed to helping local young women realize positive life experiences and prom night is such a special evening for a young lady,” said Eileen Boone, RCC’s General Programs Director. “We strongly believe that these extracurricular activities are critical for a well-rounded high school experience.”

On Saturday and Sunday, April 25 -26, 2009 at the Reston Community Center Lake Anne, high school teenagers will be able to browse and select from the collected prom dresses and accessories for prom night. Admission to this event is free. In addition, participant names will be entered in raffle drawings for a chance to win prizes donated by our local business sponsors.
